

COVID-19: FEMA

Reimbursement of Costs for Emergency Medical Services

State, local, tribal and territorial government entities, and certain private nonprofit organizations are eligible to apply to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) for reimbursement of emergency protective measures taken to respond to the COVID-19 emergency. 911 and emergency medical services (EMS) agencies (including fire service, third government service, and certain private nonprofit services) may be reimbursed for certain costs related to the COVID-19 response.

The following is a list of 911 and EMS costs that may be reimbursed by FEMA under the Public Assistance Program. General eligibility considerations for emergency protective measures apply to all claimed work and associated costs. FEMA assistance will be provided at a 75% federal cost share and may not duplicate assistance provided by other federal agencies.
